*Restrictions apply. Allied's Military Family Enrollment Plan allows one spouse or dependent to receive no-charge training when the active-duty family member enrolls at Allied using Tuition Assistance (TA) and then completes one course/module; available for certain programs only. Military spouses may also use government Career Advancement Accounts (CAA) to enroll at Allied Schools at no charge; spouses must be associated with one of 18 military installations and meet federal eligibility standards. Call for more details.
